

Collecting gypsum crystals from Lake Gilles,
South Australia. Easter 1980.

Max Hoeben.

Unidentified group of people.

Gerry Dillon, Kevin Selfe, unknown, Augie Gray.

Collecting gypsum crystals from Lake Sinclair, near Sinclair’s Gap, South Australia. Easter 1980.

Kevin Selfe and Augie Gray.

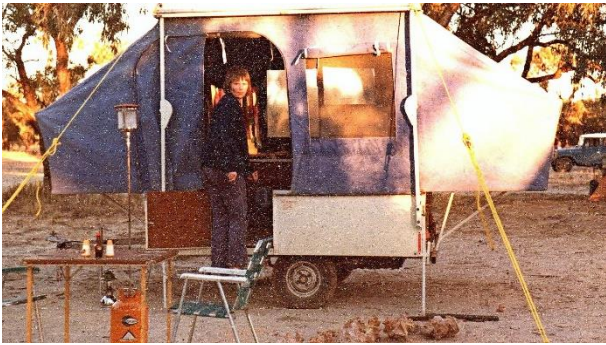

Augie Gray

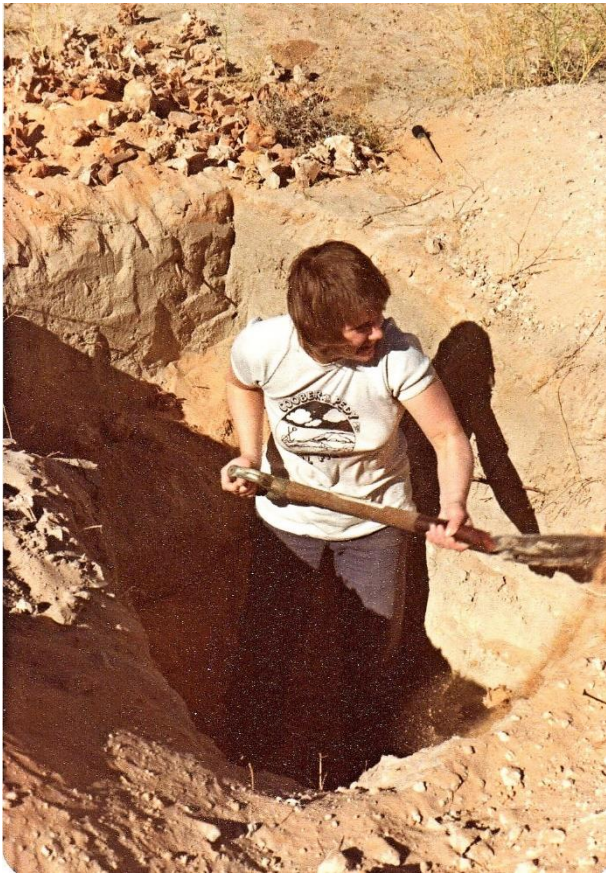

Bottom – Augie’s.

Collecting gypsum ‘sand roses’ from Woolcunda Station, New South Wales. Oct. 1980.

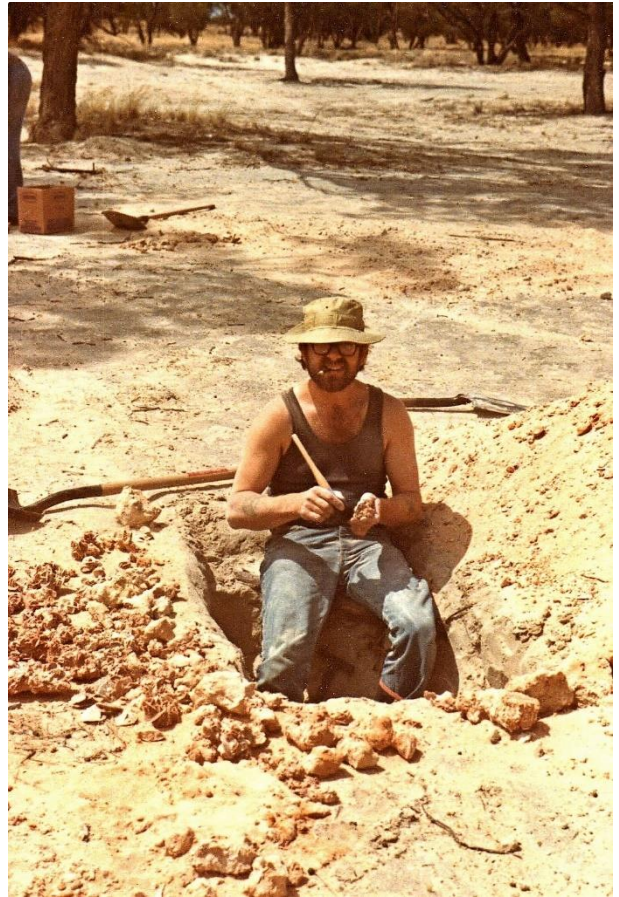

Augie in her and Max’s camper trailer known colloquially as ‘The Pic Cart’.

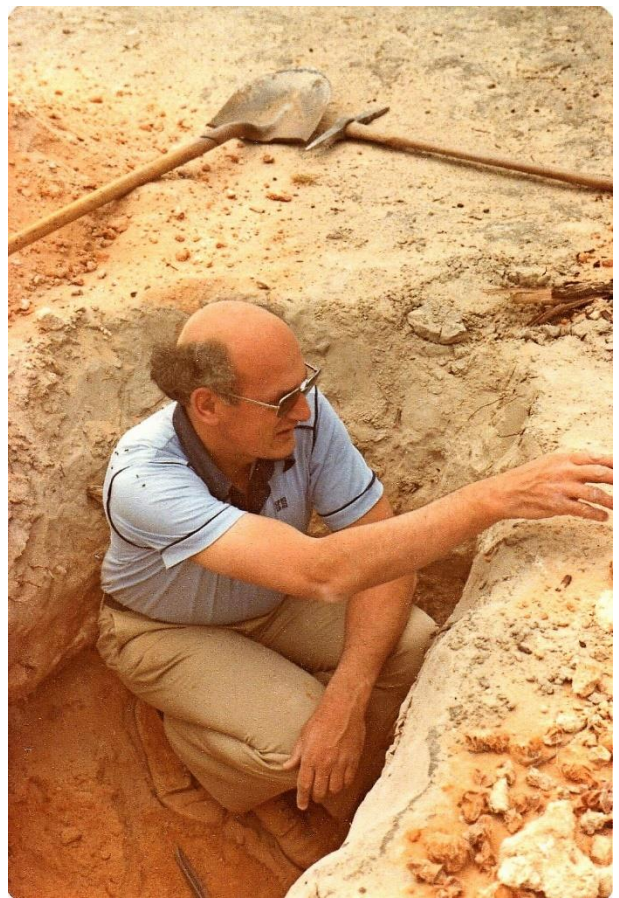

Augie Gray.

Gerry Dillon and Ian Everard.

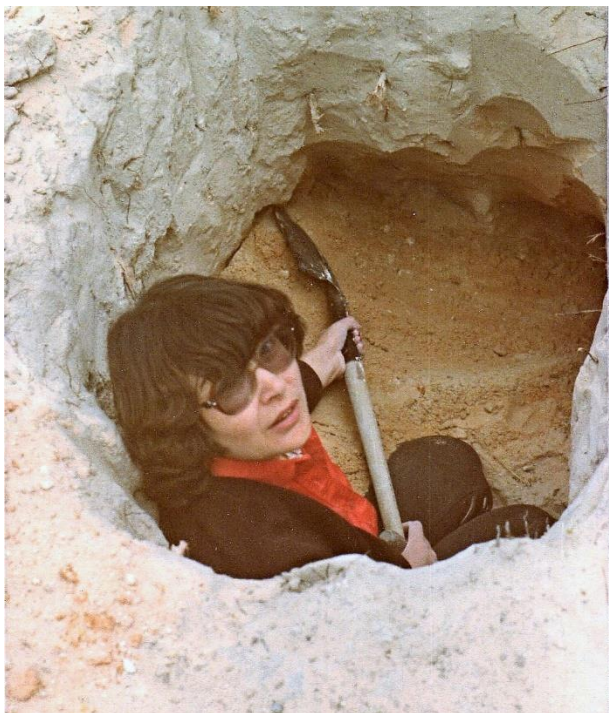

Max Hoeben

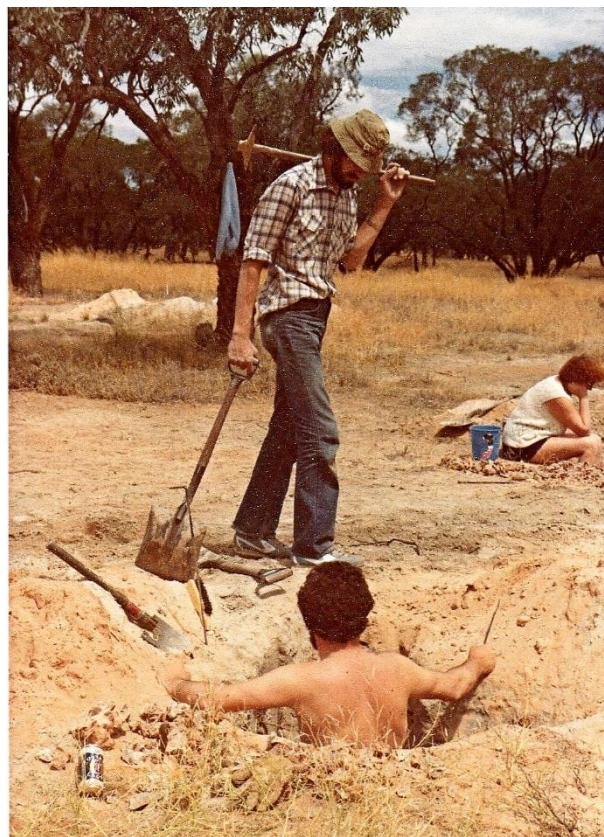

John Hill.

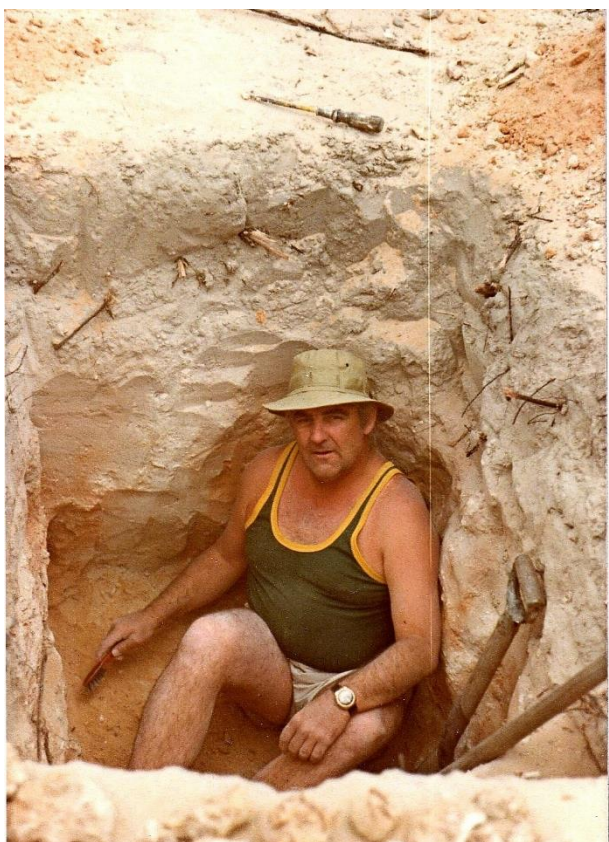

Collecting gypsum ‘sand roses’ from Woolcunda Station, New South Wales. Oct. 1980. Continued...

Anne Armstrong

Ian Everard and Gerry Dillon

Deane Smith.

Gerry Dillon.

Collecting Pseudomorphs (Limonite after Pyrite, ‘Devil’s Dice), World’s End, near Robertstown, SA. Oct. 1981.

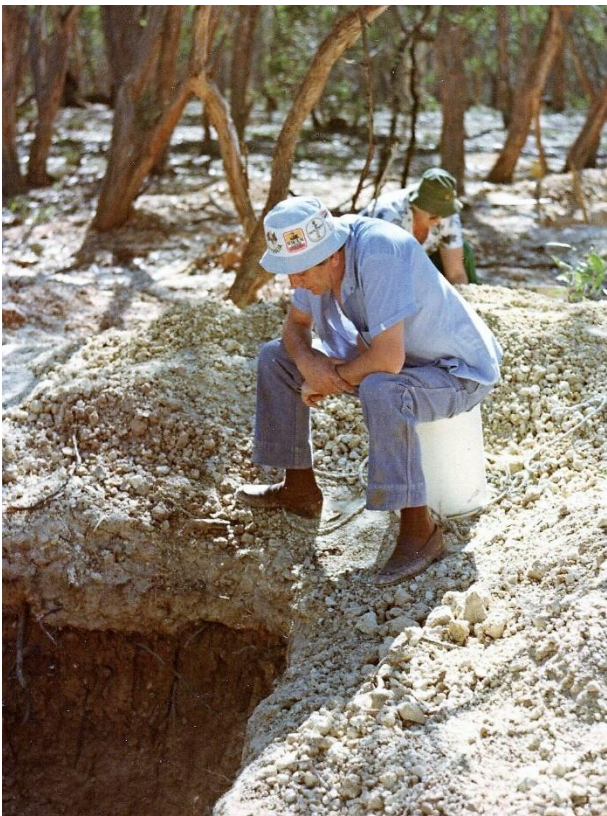

Not sure of who is who except for Max and Les Davis.

Collecting geodes containing Quartz Var. Smoky and/or Quartz Var. Amethyst, Mooralla, VIC. Easter 1982.

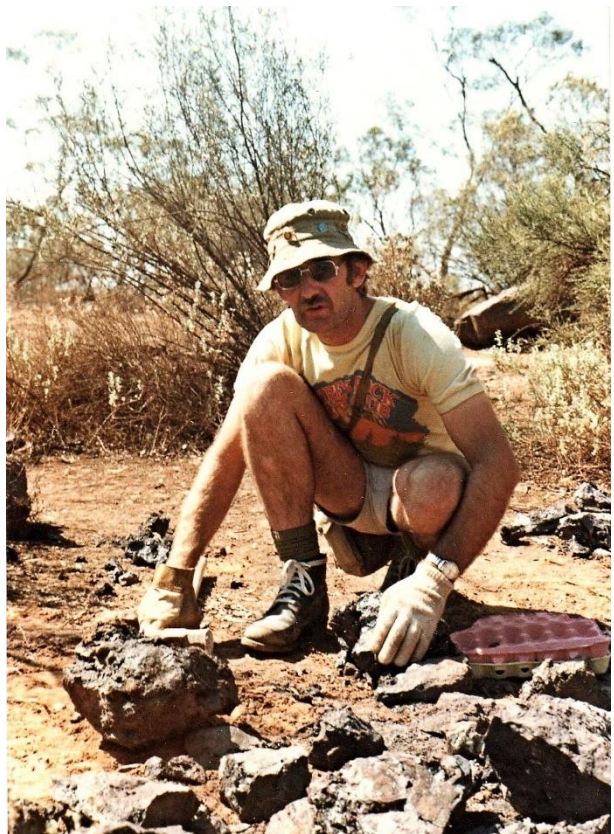

Foggy morning.

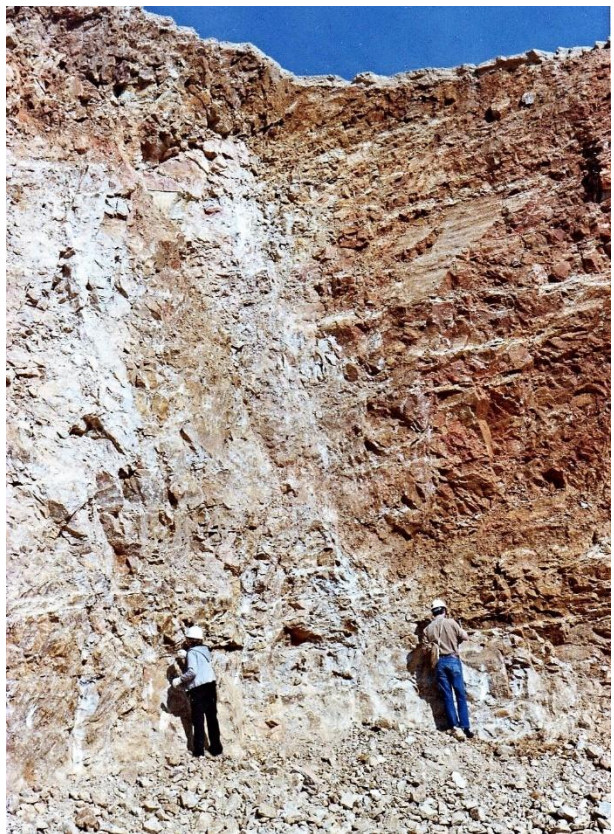

John Everard.

Collecting hematite and quartz specimens, Iron Baron, near Iron Knob, SA. Oct. 1982.

Dave Beharrie.

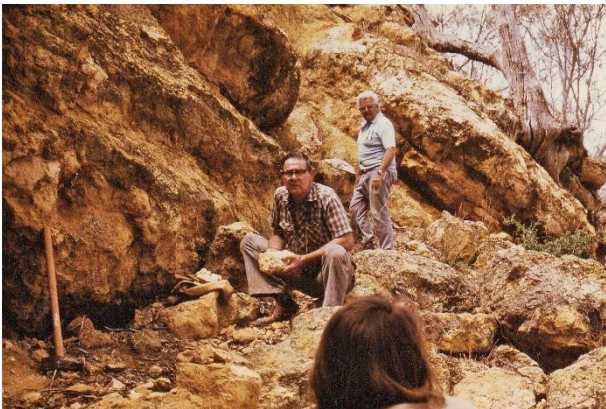

Not recognised.

Collecting Atacamite and Green Gypsum from Mount Gunson, South Australia. Oct. 1983.

Max Hoeben.

Collecting pseudomorphs (shells replaced by gypsum) Broken Cliffs, Waikerie, SA. Nov. 1984.

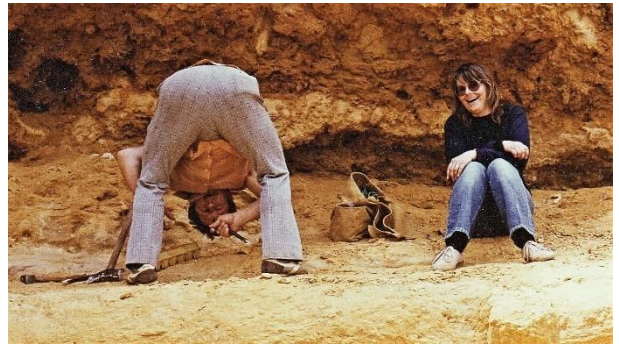

Les Davis and Deane Smith.

Terry Wilson, Gerry Dillon, Rolf Bechinger, Ian Everard, John Everard, and Heather Holland.

Ian Everard and Max Hoeben.

Rolf Bechinger and Augie Gray.

On the way to collect gypsum ‘sand roses’ from Woolcunda Station, NSW. Query 1985.

Max and Augie with a Carpet Python found on track.
