"Rockzette" Tea Tree Gully Gem & Mineral Club News

President's Report	General Interest	Club Activities / Fees
--------------------	------------------	------------------------

Greetings All,

 3 Important Announcements *****

1) At the October Committee Meeting, a resolution was passed that General meetings will change from starting at 8.00 p.m. on the 1st Thursday of each month to a 2.30 p.m. start. That is, following the Committee meetings which will commence at 2.00 p.m. This change will take effect on November 4th, 2021, on a permanent basis. (NOTE: November meetings also include the club's AGM). Hopefully, this will mean an increase in meeting attendance, as many of our older members are not comfortable driving at night.

2) A resolution was also passed to increase class fees from $3.00 to $4.00, also commencing November 4th, 2021. (This will be the first increase for approximately 30 years).

3) It was also decided that, unless something untoward (meaning Covid related) prevents it, a Christmas Lunch WILL be held this year. The date will be Sunday, the 5th of December to commence at 12.30 p.m. The format will follow that of previous years - the splendid, glazed ham, and chickens will be supplied by the Club, while members are asked to bring drinks and a salad or sweet.

N.B. If you wish to attend and have not already done so, PLEASE let either Augie or me know, as catering and seating will ONLY be supplied for the number who have responded. In other words, you will NOT be able to just turn up on the day if you have not already had your name put on the attendance list.
 Cheers,
 Ian.

Janet and Mel's Port Elliot Weekender 15-17th Oct 2021 – Granite Island New Causeway Photo Update

The new Granite Island Causeway engineering job was 3 months in progress when this photo was taken on May 14th, 2021. The location is at the Victor Harbor end and foundation work was in progress, but no causeway structure. (This photo and others can be seen in the July 2021 TTGGMC Newsletter, page 9, column 3.)

On Sunday 17th October 2021, Janet and I went for a walk across the old causeway to Granite Island to see what progress had been made. This photo was taken from Granite Island and as can be seen quite considerable progress has been made with the new causeway almost reaching Granite Island. Walking along the island path taken by the horse-drawn trams was blocked due to engineering works. The path to gain access to the east end of the island was straight up the hill behind where I was standing to take this photo.

Rest stop as the path is quite steep.

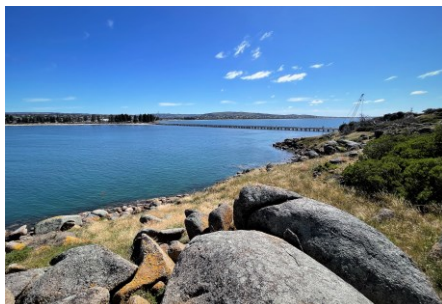

To the West, great clear view of The Bluff.

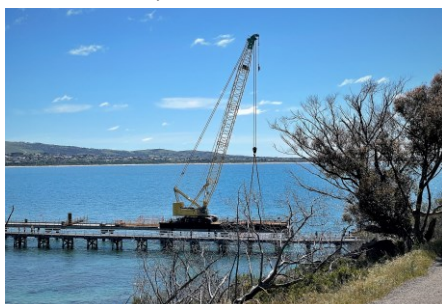

Engineering works in progress along where the horse drawn tramline runs...public not able to access this area at present.

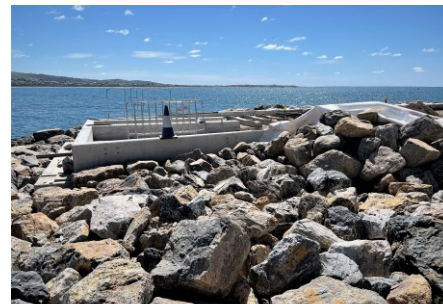

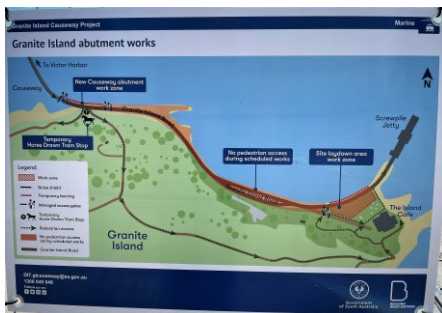

Access is available via the wooden stairway to the café area and pylon jetty. (Café currently not open).

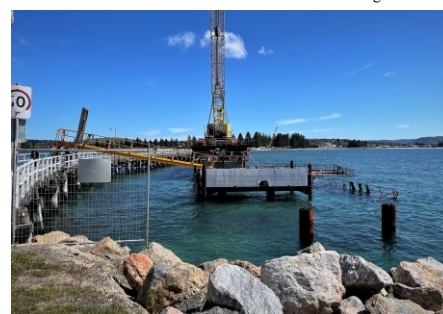

View towards causeway from North-western side of Granite Island.

New causeway barely a stone throw from granite Island.

No sudden shifts noticed while we were there...thank goodness!

New causeway is getting close (where crane is standing).

Wonder what these orange pipes are for – power, water, what else?

Threesome – Lion, Tiger, and Bear

[Noah's Ark - Noah's Ark \(noahs-ark.org\)](http://Noah's Ark - Noah's Ark (noahs-ark.org))

This is Leo the African lion, Baloo the black bear, and Shere Khan the Bengal tiger. The threesome was rescued as babies from the basement of an Atlanta drug dealer's home when it was raided by authorities.

They were starving, traumatised, and had bacterial infections.

Since then, they were brought to Noah's Ark Animal Sanctuary, where they've lived in the same habitat together for 13 years.

The only time the three were separated was when Baloo was sent to surgery. [while at the drug dealer's home, Baloo had been mistreated so profoundly that the harness that was put on him had grown into his skin.]

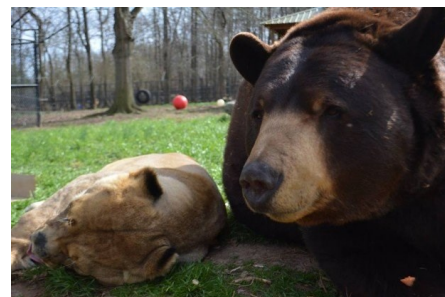

The two cats were distraught and cried for the bear's return when he was at the Vets. Since then, no one has separated the group. They clearly bonded during their earliest memories and never wanted to be apart.

Now they live together as if they were brothers of the same species.

They play together, nuzzle one another and are extremely affectionate. This threesome is the only lion, tiger and bear living together in the world.

No one ever told them they couldn't love one another, so they did just that. And now, even all these years later, they continue to do so. The trio are affectionately referred to as BLT, standing for bear, lion, and tiger.

I asked a wise man,
"tell me sir, in which field
could I make a great career?"

He said with a smile, "be a good human being. There is a lot of opportunity in this area and very little competition."

Since we are now redefining everything, this is a cordless hole puncher.

The Bodybuilder and the Blonde

The body builder takes off his shirt and the blonde says, 'What a great chest you have!'

He tells her, 'That's 100 lbs. of dynamite, baby.' He takes off his pants and the blonde says, 'What massive calves you have!'

The body builder tells her, 'That's 100 lbs. of dynamite, baby.'

He then removes his underwear, and the blonde goes running out of the apartment screaming in fear.

The body builder puts his clothes back on and chases after her. He catches up to her and asks why she ran out of the apartment like that.

The blonde replies, 'I was afraid to be around all that dynamite after I saw how short the fuse was!'

Conundrums

A nun is walking down the street when a man stops her. He says, "please sister, those soldiers are after me, will you hide me under your skirts?" The nun agrees and hides him until the soldiers are gone. The man comes out and says "Thank you for helping me, I don't want to go to war. I hope this isn't too forward, but while I was down there, I couldn't help but notice you have a great pair of legs." The nun replies, "If you'd looked higher, you'd have seen a great pair of balls. I don't want to go to war either!"

Two little boys were known troublemakers, stealing everything they could get their hands, even from the church. One day a priest stopped one of the boys and asked, "Where is God?" The boy shrugged and the priest repeated, "Where is God?" The boy ran out of the cathedral crying to his home where he hid in a closet. Eventually his brother found him and asked, "What's wrong?" The crying boy replied, "We're in trouble now! God is missing and they think we took him!"

A drunk staggers into a Catholic Church, enters a confessional booth, sits down, but says nothing. The Priest coughs a few times to get his attention, but the drunk continues to sit there. Finally, the Priest pounds three times on the wall. The drunk mumbles, "Ain't no use knocking! There's no paper on this side either!"

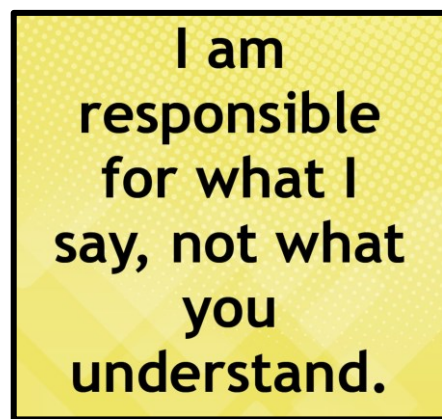

A teacher was testing her students' knowledge of words' antonyms. She asked, "What is the opposite of go?" A student answered, "Stop." "Very good," the teacher replied. "What is the opposite of adamant?" Another student said, "Eveant."

Jane and Arlene are outside their nursing home, having a drink and a smoke, when it starts to rain. Jane pulls out a condom, cuts of the end, puts it over her cigarette, and continues smoking.

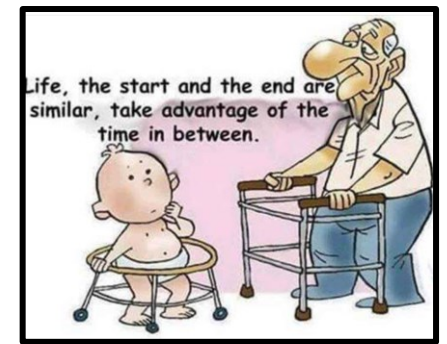

Arlene: What in the hell is that?
Jane: A condom. This way my cigarette doesn't get wet.

Arlene: Where did you get it?
Jane: You can get them at any pharmacy.

The next day, Arlene hobbles herself into the local pharmacy and announces to the pharmacist that she wants a box of condoms. The pharmacist, obviously embarrassed, looks at her kind of strangely (she is, after all, over 80 years of age) but very delicately asks what size, texture, brand of condom she prefers.

Jane replies: 'Doesn't matter Sonny, as long as it fits a camel!'

The pharmacist fainted!

The old lady handed her bank card to a bank teller and said, "I would like to withdraw $10
The teller told her, "For withdrawals less than $100 please use the ATM."
The old lady wanted to know why ...
The teller returned her bank card and irritably told her, "These are the rules. Please leave if there is no other matter. There is a line of customers behind you."
The old lady remained silent for a few seconds, then handed the card back to the teller and said, "Please help me withdraw all the money I have."
The teller was astonished when she checked the account balance. She nodded her head, leaned down and respectfully told her, you have $300,000 in your account and the bank doesn't have that much cash currently. Could you make an appointment and come again tomorrow?
The old lady then asked how much she could withdraw immediately.
The teller told her any amount up to $3000
"Well, please let me have $3000 now", she The teller then handed it very friendly and respectfully to her
The old lady put $10 in her purse and asked the teller to deposit $2990 back into her account.
